

Dinner at Grand Oaks – STRIDE Show #3 – Saturday, May 19, 2018

Please join us after the driving show or clinic for dinner and a great discussion on equine learning theory, led by Tik Maynard. Tik is a lifelong horseman, growing up in Canada and competing in Pentathalon and eventing. Tik won the freestyle competition at the 2015 Thoroughbred Make-Over competition. Tik, and his wife, Sinead Halpin (yes, the Olympic Three-Day veteran) live year-round in Citra, and run a successful program training horses and riders for eventing. Come and learn how to incorporate ground work into your program to improve trust and confidence in your horse.

Dinner is $25 each and a cash bar is available. Food will be chicken marsala, vegetarian lasagna, along with veges and ice tea. Reservations are required and advance payment necessary. Please mail your check to Karen Kim, 10061 NW 160th St., Reddick, FL 32686 by (date). Dinner will start at 6 pm with Tik's discussion beginning at 7 pm.

Clinic Information: If you are interested in riding in the clinic on Saturday, please email Judy Downer at starrynightfarm55@yahoo.com. Karen Abbatista is an excellent clinician, suitable to western dressage riders or lower level traditional riders. Her rides are $50, payable to STRIDE no later than one week prior to the clinic. Matt McLaughlin is great trainer, specializing in FEI levels. His rides are $120, also payable to STRIDE within one week of the clinic. Please send checks to Judy Downer, 6880 NW 21st St., Ocala, FL 34482.
